OUR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

We offer the breadth of services you would expect from one of the world's largest accountancy networks. And what's more our coordinated approach mean you only have to tell us something once and every member of the team will be thinking about how they can help. We do not belong to the "Limited" business because our services cover a wide spectrum of the Professional services as detailed below:

Audit & Assurance

All businesses are exposed to a range of risks at each stage of their development. Nexia SJ Tanzania provides audit and a range of other assurance services designed to identify, manage and adapt to these risks.

Audit & Assurance services provide value to decision makers by giving comfort that information they use is reliable. Effective management is what turns ideas, products and services into steady profits, but businesses need stable foundations and even the most creative commercial ideas have to stack up financially.

Nexia SJ Tanzania offers the following services, tailored to meet your needs:

- Statutory Audit for Private and Public Sectors, NGOs, Co-operative societies;
- Forensic investigations;
- Expenditure Verification;
- Performance auditing;
- Information Systems (IS) audit;
- Special investigations; and Technical advice and interpretations

Taxation

Our tax arm advises inbound and outbound international businesses on a wide range of tax compliance, tax planning and tax advisory issues. The complexity of tax regimes vary from country to country and the many annual changes in tax law can serve to move international borders further apart. Expert tax advice is therefore vital if you do business overseas. International tax is so complex that no one individual could keep track of it.

Corporate Finance

Whether you're looking to raise funds, expand, merge or sell your business, our consulting arm offers the local and cross-border specialist know-how needed to complete a transaction from start to finish.

Turning your business dreams into a successful reality requires specialist assistance and often calls for additional finance. An acquisition, disposal, listing or overseas expansion may be the single biggest transaction you will have faced. The support of people who have many years' experience in these areas can make all the difference. We provide an investigative financial analysis of a business.

Our resources and experience cover the following areas:

- capital markets and public listings
- debt and equity fundraising
- mergers and acquisitions
- management buy-outs and buy-ins
- due diligence investigations
- transaction support services
- post-deal integration and support

Management consultancy

Management consultancy is about helping organisations to improve their performance. A good consultant helps you to fine-tune your business or organisation to measure success, improve efficiency, maximise performance and minimise risk. An effective service lets you know where you are, decide where you want to go, and work out how to get there.

We can provide regulatory compliance, internal audit, fraud risk assessment, internal control reviews, information security risk assessment and policy and procedure development services to public, private and not-for-profit organisations.
